Marline, a graduate of the University at Buffalo School of Law, honed her legal skills as a student attorney in the Community Justice Clinic. There, she collaborated in student teams on Immigration litigation and homecare study policy matters, drafting legal documents, researching intricate legal issues, and conducting client interviews. Marline is known for her dedication and meticulous work ethic. Prior to joining Rebar Kelly, Marline served as an Assistant District Attorney at The Bronx District Attorney's Office. With experience prosecuting misdemeanor and felony cases, presenting to grand juries, and handling a heavy case load, she brings a robust background to her role. Marline will be handling Civil Litigation Defense matters for the firm.
